D.C. Boys Choir, a group of musically talented young male students, was established to help develop self-esteem by nurturing their creativity through artistic expression. The D.C. Boys Choir has gained national and international recognition with honor and distinction, under the leadership of Eleanor Stewart, a retired vocal music teacher of the District of Columbia public schools.

The choir was established in 1993 and is one of the premier music groups in the nation. The D.C. Boys Choir has a long and distinguished list of command performances, from Harlem to the White House and throughout Europe. They have appeared at the Kennedy Center, sung as special guests of the Washington Men's Camerata and for the 14th Annual Choral Tribute to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

The choir represented the nation's capital in Beijing, China at the Pre-Olympic Music Festival, June 25-July 6, 2008.
